

Form No. II (To be completed by the consistory.)

CONSISTORY EVALUATION/RECOMMENDATION REGARDING CLASSIS CARE

"A confessing member of a congregation in the Reformed Church in America who desires to become a minister shall apply to the classis with jurisdiction over the church in which membership is held to be enrolled as a candidate for the ministry. This application shall be made through the consistory of the church in which membership is held" (BCO, 1, II, 8,1).

Some issues for discussion and evaluation by the consistory when it meets with the applicant:

1. What are the indications of a vital faith in Christ?
2. How is the applicant expressing that faith through active participation in the worship, study and ministry of the local church?
3. What motivates the applicant's desire to prepare for Christian ministry?
4. What current or potential strengths or gifts for ministry are evident?
5. Are these gifts being used and bearing fruit?
6. What is the level of adequacy of relational ability?
7. What is the level of adequacy of self-discipline and follow through?
